PROGRAM : MEETING ON WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 14, 2009

Rotary President Prakash Pisipati introduced Rotary's newest member, Andrea Greenberg of Daleview Nursing Home. She was giving her classification talk. Raised in Floral Park Queens, she took a job with the American Cancer Society when she was 18 years old. She worked there for seven years and developed a fondness for serving charitable organizations. Currently residing in Massapequa, Ms. Greenberg worked for several nursing homes before coming to Daleview. Recently, the position of recreation director opened at Daleview and she was chosen for the position. She has installed activities with the Red Hat Society, Farmingdale Library and a wonderful garage sale as part of her programs. Ms. Greenberg has two daughters, Stacy, 25, who works in retail and Amanda, 22, who works at Massapequa Animal Hospital. Ms. Greenberg's hobbies are cooking and homemaking, both of which she does quite well.

Kathy Firetog responded for the Rotary. She met Ms. Greenberg when her mother-in-law was at Daleview and received great care from Andrea. Kathy said Andrea has a great heart and will continue to give valuable community service to Farmingdale.
