PROGRAM : MEETING ON WEDNESDAY, April 29, 2009

President Prakash Pisipati introduced VP John Cuccia who presented today's program which featured a Group Study Exchange team from Lower Saxony, Germany. The German team was led by Martin Gutsche, a CPA and attorney, and a past District Governor of Rotary District 7250. The other members of the team were banker Tanja Beenken of Jever, Germany, marketing manager Simon Droste of Oldenburg, Ulrike Junjemann, a regional planner from Rotenburg and Jan Spekker, a TV journalist from Bremen, Germany. The team was taken to Brookhaven Labs and after that each one visited businesses of interest such as News 12, Eston Colorcraft or Judge Sal Nicosia's court. The team thanked the Rotary families that housed them which were the Purandares, the Carmans, the Firetogs and Joan Flamenbaum. They showed the Rotarians beautiful slides of Germany and pointed out that it was Germany that first invented the auto, the bicycle, the computer, the refrigerator, and aspirin. Frank Bondiotti, whose mother was German, responded for the Rotary. He said that the team well represented Germany and hoped that they would enjoy their stay in New York.
