PROGRAM : MEETING ON WEDNESDAY, MAY 6, 2009

Rotary President Prakash Pisipati introduced VP John Cuccia who presented today's speaker, Erik H. Neil Ph. D who is executive director of the Heckscher Museum of Art, 2 Prime Avenue, Huntington, N.Y. The museum was started in 1920 a bequest from financial wizard August Hecksher. It owns over 2000 paintings, the jewel of which is "Eclipse of the Sun" by German painter George Grosz. This painting is worth over 22 million dollars. The museum exhibits some of the best art in the world and is active in working with Long Island schools in educating our youth about art. Some of the youths get to join the museum's staff of expert docents who assist the public in enjoying the artwork by explaining the nuances involved. On Saturday, May 16, 2009 there will be a special night at the museum when it will be open late until 11 PM. There will then be a movie about the museum shown at the Cinema Arts Theatre. The museum sometimes exchanges paintings with other museums. From May 2 through July 5 the museum is showing the landscapes of April Gornik. From July 11-Sept. 27 they will feature American impressionist William Meritt Chase. Stu Sinclair responded for the Rotary. He and his wife are members of the museum. For a small fee, they get to view shows, meet the artists and hear the docents interesting commentaries. Stu complimented Mr. Neil and his staff on their work and hoped he would visit Farmingdale Rotary again in the future.

correction:

Last week Nancy White was listed as a guest. She is a regular member of Rotary. (First woman President) Sorry Nancy for the booboo.
